Many thanks to those who have contributed to the Schulze Family Foundation Challenge to benefit Holy Rosary School. So far we have raised $12,725. This will be posted weekly in the bulletin, on the screens before Masses and on Evangelus for the duration of the challenge to keep you informed of our progress. To be eligible for the $25,000 matching grant from the foundation we must reach $25,000 or more in new donations. If you haven't given to the school in the past, this is a great opportunity to make every dollar count!

Diocesan staff and volunteers are preparing for the installation of the Most Reverend Andrew Cozzens on Monday, Dec. 6. Please note this is a ticketed event, not open to the public. Guests include clergy from the Diocese of Crookston, clergy from the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, visiting bishops, consecrated religious, representatives of diocesan boards and councils, and friends and family of the bishop-designate. Everyone will be able to watch the installation and pray as one faith community. Please give generously. Watch the SMMA video and donate online at www.crookston.org/smna.

Today's special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. The Office of Formation in Discipleship is seeking to identify laity from around the Diocese who are willing to provide a "witness talk" describing their faith journey and how they seek to share the name and the love of Jesus in the world. We want to find a group of people from across the diocese who are seeking to live as missionary disciples. The idea is to: 1) record their witness talks (about 10 minutes) so that we have a "library" of presentations and 2) to have some of these people be willing to talk in another parish one or perhaps two times per year. We hope that we will find about 30-40 Catholics across all ages including high school students. We are asking those who read the general mailing to prayerfully reflect on who might be in your parishes that may be willing to help with this initiative. If you think of someone, please email Deacon Mark with their name and a cell number and/or email address to mkrejci@crookston.org.

The Diocese of Crookston is seeking a full-time Executive Assistant to the Bishop. We are seeking a self-motivated and team-orientated professional of high integrity who possesses a great work ethic and is passionate about fulfilling the Catholic Church's mission. The Executive Assistant to the Bishop will provide administrative and organizational support for the Bishop and other team needs. The individual will also serve as a polished, knowledgeable, and motivated representative of the Bishop's Office to internal and external contacts. The Diocese of Crookston offers full benefits (including paid time off, health and dental insurance, life and long-term disability insurance, and pension). To apply, e-mail a resume and cover letter to Janelle Gergen at jgergen@crookston.org. Listing will remain posted until position is filled. Visit www.crookston.org/employment to learn more!

Project Rachel: Confidential Care for Post-Abortive Women and Men. The Diocese of Crookston has a confidential phone service for women or men who are seeking healing, hope and reconciliation after abortion. Staffed by a female counselor trained in Project Rachel ministry - a ministry of the Catholic Church showing that there is hope after abortion. Calls are answered Tuesday thru Friday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. The confidential phoneline is 218-470-0112.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number)

I probably read today's readings at least 10 times each. In the first two readings we hear about Jesus coming in on clouds, how "every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him."

As I read the readings the first time, my thoughts went to those who were there during his crucifixion, who pierced Jesus in his side. After reading it over and over, a deeper meaning started coming through. While we can often think of Jesus suffering on the cross and having his side pierced, who do you see holding the spear?

Has there been times that it was you or I? Every time we go against God's will, are we in fact holding the spear? Every time we do something wrong, especially knowing what we did was wrong, we drive that spear in a little farther. Therefore, everyone will "lament" and be filled with grief and sorrow when he comes.

Then, in the gospel, we hear about Pilate questioning Jesus, asking Him if he was a king. Jesus replies, "my kingdom is not of this world, and after Pilate says, "so you are a king." Jesus says, "for this I was born and for this I came into the world to testify the truth, everyone who belongs to the truth, listens to my voice."

I often wonder what went through Pilate's mind. He did not want to crucify Jesus as he saw no wrongdoing, however, Pilate was so concerned with power that he "passed the buck" and then washed his hands of the crucifixion of Jesus.

If Jesus was to come tomorrow, are we ready? Will we be excited and full of joy or will we "lament?" Perhaps this Sunday would be a great time for some reflection as we prepare for what is to come.

Not all is dark and gloomy in today's readings. Next week we change colors for the start of Advent. We look forward to Christmas and Jesus' birth. It is an opportunity for us to reflect on what we all endured through over the past year, and give thanks to the Lord our God for all that we have. As Jesus said, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty." I really enjoy Advent, as it gives me so much to look forward to, and so much to be thankful for. I start to think of the readings that are to come, the excitement of hearing of Jesus birth and all those who traveled to see this wonderful gift of life. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May your Advent be filled with blessings and the Holy Spirit as we begin this season's journey together.

Carlos Diaz - Parish Receptionist

A blessed and happy Sunday to you! Today is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. You may have heard it more commonly referred to as the feast of Christ the King. Today's feast day has always been an exciting one on the Church calendar for me. It's the last Sunday in Ordinary Time (Yes! A change to a new color in the church!), and it's the last Sunday before Advent begins (Yes! Christmas is coming!) After doing a little research on the history of today's Solemnity and then reflecting on what this feast day means for me, I've learned there are two better reasons to be excited about Christ the King Sunday.

#1. In 1925, Pope Pius XI instituted today's feast day in response to growing secularism and nationalism in the world. Here are just few things that were happening at this time:

- Jan 3 Benito Mussolini dissolves parliament and becomes a dictator.
- Feb 27 In Munich, Adolf Hitler resurrects his political party.
- Aug 8 As many as 40,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan parade in Washington DC. The Klan has an estimated 5 million, making it the largest fraternal organization in the United States.
- Nov 16 In New York, the American Association for Advancement of Atheism is formed.

It's clear that our world needed to hear (and still does) that Jesus is the King of the Universe. Thank you, Pope Pius XI.

#2. Celebrating that Jesus Christ is King of the Universe means we recognize that He is the King of: "all existing matter and space considered as a whole; the cosmos". Yep, Jesus is the ruler and King over EVERYTHING, and that includes all of us. He is the "Alpha and the Omega . . . the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty" (Rev 1:8). As the King's son or daughter, we should give Him permission to rule over us: our physical body, our intellect, our emotions, our joys, our failures, our sufferings, EVERYTHING. Life is so much easier when we let Jesus have His way and not ours. So, celebrate this beautiful Solemnity today in a special way. Maybe with a favorite feast or dessert in honor of our King, or by intentionally asking Jesus to be the Ruler of your family and home. The feast of Christ the King is therefore not a feast of those who are subjugated, but a feast of those who know that they are in the hands of the one who writes straight on crooked lines. ~Pope Benedict XVI

Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"Jesus answered, 'My kingdom does not belong to this world.'" (John 18:36)
 Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building "your" kingdom here on earth? We all know we can't take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

Holy Father's November Prayer Intention:

People who suffer from depression: We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.
