

The Tabernacle of His Presence: Tabernacle derives from the Latin word for tent. At the time of the exodus God chose to dwell in the midst of his pilgrim people in a tent. "The glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle" (Exodus 40:34). Saint John describes the incarnation of the Word as the pitching of his tent among us (cf. John 1:14). With time, the word tabernacle came to designate the locked cupboard or receptacle wherein the Blessed Sacrament is reserved for communion of the dying, the sick, and those unable to be present at Mass. The Saints through the ages have experienced the presences of Christ in the tabernacle as "a kind of magnetic pole" (cf. John Paul II, Mane nobiscum, Domine, art.18). Moved by the Holy Spirit, Catholics are drawn to the tabernacle as Moses was drawn to the "tent of meeting" (cf. Exodus 33:1-10). There the Lord spoke to him "face to face, as a man speaks to his friend" (Exodus 33:11). The tabernacle may be located either in the sanctuary or in another part of the church that is "truly noble, prominent, readily visible, beautifully decorated, and suitable for prayer" (GIRM, art. 314). A special lamp, burning oil, or wax remains lighted at all times to signify Christ's Eucharist presence.

Esto Vir! ("Be a Man!") vocation camp is coming up again this summer, and I wanted to invite you to join us. This camp is for young men entering their sophomore year in high school through young adulthood. It's a great opportunity to come together and spend some relaxed days in community with the seminarians of the diocese and with other young men who are asking the big questions in life. The camp includes games, lakeside recreation, Mass, prayer, food, and fellowship. There is unstructured time for individual prayer and informal conversations as well as structured time for group prayer, group recreation time, and talks. We will grow closer to the Lord and forge deeper friendships with each other while we learn how to discern our vocations. Bishop Cozzens, newly-ordained Fr. John Wilebski, and the seminarians will be present for the entire camp. We hope you can join us! Check out a short video on the crookston.org website.

Date: July 11-14 (Tues-Fri)

Location: Oaks Hills Christian College (Bemidji, MN) Cost: FREE! Registration Deadline: June 26

PROTECT YOURSELF from SCAMMERS

From time to time, texts or emails that look like they come from Father Chuck will reach parishioners but if you look closely, they aren't from Father, they are from a scammer. Keep reading to learn how to identify these scams and what to do if you receive one.

How can I tell if an email is from Father or not?

Look at the address of the sender. Father's email address will end with holyrosarycc.org or crookston.org.

Father will not ask you for money or gifts of an urgent nature.

Father's normal closing is "Blessings on your day!"

What should I do if I receive an email from a scammer? The best thing to do is to delete it, and then go into your deleted messages and delete it from there as well.

Texts can be harder to identify as a scam if you don't know Father's number, but as with an email, Father will never request money, gift cards, etc. from you in a text. If the intent of the text is monetary, do not respond. Delete the text string and block that number so the scammer is unavailable to reach you in the future.

Project Rachel: Confidential Care for Post-Abortive Women and Men. The Diocese of Crookston has a confidential phone service for women or men who are seeking healing, hope and reconciliation after abortion. The Catholic Church shows that there is hope after abortion. Confidential and private phone line is 218-470-0112.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, call your local law enforcement, and then contact the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at 218-281-7895, available 24-hours a day. All calls are confidential.

Twelfth Sunday In Ordinary Time

During the Year of St. Joseph, Fr. Don Calloway, published a book named, "Consecration to St. Joseph." Due to the continuing struggles in our culture, which are so numerous, I found the reading of Day 31 to be a good message. Read on as St. Joseph is known as the "Terror of Demons."

Fr. Calloway writes, "Demons fear Jesus. Demons fear Mary. Did you know that demons fear St. Joseph as well? It's true. Demons are absolutely terrified of St. Joseph.

Evil spirits are terrified of St. Joseph because he alone is the spouse of the Immaculata (Our Blessed Mother) and the (earthly) father of Jesus Christ. Saint Joseph is the gateway to Jesus and Mary. Everything that touches him becomes a relic. He saved the Savior from Herod, spent decades in adoration, exercised paternal authority over Jesus, and made it possible for Jesus and Mary to offer their sacrifice on Calvary. Demons have plenty to be afraid of in the person of St. Joseph. He is mighty.

Saint Joseph is a dragon slayer! The title "Terror of Demons" is the most unique title of St. Joseph. It is a fearsome and commanding title. It is the title of a warrior. The lily St. Joseph holds in his hand is a mighty spiritual weapon, a sword of purity. It has the power to pierce fire-breathing dragons (demons) and conquer every form of filth and darkness. The lily he wields is a threat to all the filthy forces of Satan.

Demons are terrified of the mere mention of St. Joseph's name. They fear everything about St. Joseph. "How terrified are they?" Well, terrified enough that they fear when he sleeps! When St. Joseph slumbers, he speaks to God! It doesn't matter if his mind and body are at rest. St. Joseph's spirit is always at attention and ready to protect, defend and fight for Jesus, Mary, and souls. When St. Joseph rises from sleep, demons know he will promptly do the will of God and block their evil intentions. Whether St. Joseph is awake or asleep, all hell trembles before the father and king of the Holy Family.

St. Joseph is a quiet man, be he is not a timid man. One glance of his eyes sends all hell into flight. One word from his mouth routs the forces of darkness as an axe levels a field of trees! Who can stand against you if the Terror of Demons protects you?

St. Joseph will protect you against Satan and his Demons. Satan is not a myth; neither are evil spirits and demons. The world considers these creatures to be fairytales and legends, but they are real. We are in a spiritual battle. Satan and his demons are out to get you.

St. Peter offered the following description of the devil and the hellish threat he poses: Be sober and vigilant. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, knowing that your fellow believers throughout the world undergo the same sufferings. (1 Peter 5:8-9)

To defeat the devil, you need Jesus, Mary, St. Joseph, and the teachings and Sacraments of the Catholic Church. Every Christian needs truth and the strong spiritual fatherhood of St. Joseph.

You are a child of St. Joseph. It doesn't matter if you are 6 years old or 60 years old. Jesus himself referred to grown men on the shores of Galilee as children (see John 21:5). Jesus is God, and he has appointed St. Joseph to be your loving spiritual father. In times of fear, oppression, mortal danger, and extreme temptation, run to your spiritual father. He will fight for you. The Terror of Demons is ready to slay dragons for you!

St. Joseph, may you and your immaculate spouse assist me in the final struggle. – St. John Neumann"

We are celebrating 23 years of service to the parish by Mary Hager. In her career she has served 3 Pastors and many associate priests along with a parish family that has grown considerably in her time at Holy Rosary. She has an exceptional memory for names and faces and has completed an uncountable number of tasks for the parish and school in her time with us. One of Mary's most important tasks has been maintaining the records for the sacramental moments celebrated at Holy Rosary. This was a task that Mary excelled at greatly, as it is common to hear many refer to her as the source of information and the history of the parish. After many conversations, a time of transition has arrived. June 30th will mark a big change for the parish as Mary enters retirement and discovers what that will be like for her. She is a talented woman who has many adventures awaiting her. We wish her well in her retirement and extend our great appreciation for Mary's many years of service.

Following each mass on Sunday, July 9th, please join us in the Parish Living Room for a celebration of Mary's service to Holy Rosary. Enjoy cake, coffee, juice and conversation as we take the time to formally appreciate our friend, Mary, and her many years of service to the parish.

Spots are still available for the Parish Patio Parties!

Sign up to attend a Parish Patio Party! Enjoy a picnic meal provided by the parish. Fellowship provided by family and friends!

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.'"

Matthew 10:7 Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in a relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second, invite the Lord into your heart.

Please remember those who have asked for our prayers:

Jodi Ahles, Phillip Cable, Becky Burns, Madison Koch, Brenda Schander, and Marleen Rusch. When adding someone to the prayer list, please ask their permission first, and then contact the Parish Office (218-847-1393.) Names are left on the prayer list for four weeks.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for July: We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to an encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

The Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Pancake/French toast and Sausage Breakfast on Sunday, July 2 from 8am-12:30pm in the Holy Rosary Parish Center.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held every Tuesday from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm in the church. All are welcome at any time to pray and be with Jesus.

Sunday Holy Hour: Deacon Gary and Fr. Chuck lead a Holy Hour on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month at 3:00 pm. This is an opportunity to spend time with Jesus. Adoration also takes place during this time. You may stop in for any length of time that works for you. The hour closes with Benediction. Bring a friend and spend time with your friend Jesus!

Parish Bulletin:

The deadline to submit information for the bulletin is Tuesdays at noon. You may send announcements via mail or email to the Parish Office or by emailing Brenda Walz at bwalz@holyroarycc.org

BAPTISM: If you plan to present your child for Baptism, contact Kathy Olson at: kaolson@holyroarycc.org or 218-847-1393.
RECONCILIATION: Saturdays at 4:00 pm, Sundays at 10:15 am, or by appointment.
MARRIAGE: Those wishing to celebrate the sacrament of Marriage are asked to contact Fr. Chuck at least six months prior to the intended date of the celebration.
