

The Gloria: "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to people of good will" (Luke 2:15). The Gloria is sung on Sundays outside of Advent and Lent, solemnities, and feasts. Often referred to as "the Angelic Hymn", the Gloria was first intoned by angels from heaven for the birth of Christ on earth. The Gloria is a true hymn. Its opening burst of praise overflows into a series of joyful cries addressed to the Father: "We praise you, we bless you, we worship you, we give you thanks for your great glory".

The hymn goes on to implore the mercy of the Son, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. In singing the Gloria the Church relives the experience of St. Stephen who, "full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God" (Acts 7:55). Gazing on Christ, the Church praises him: "You alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High". The final lines of the Gloria soar into the blinding mystery of the Trinity: "Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father". The hymn ends where it began: in the heavens.

Would you like to deepen your faith and let Jesus become more involved in your life? Let the Spirit lead you on a Cursillo.

Greetings to you, this Twenty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time.

For our part of the nation, this weekend brings tough news... the conclusion of summer 2023. School begins this week, family and personal routines begin to form, which were modified over the summer. At Holy Rosary, the staff is excited for the coming year of Faith Formation, forming the Eucharistic Revival Small Group Sessions, the activity of children and teachers in the school and reconnecting more regularly with the Holy Rosary Faith Family... meaning that Fr. Chuck has finally used up most of his vacation time.

Last weekend, Fr. Chuck announced the Eucharistic Revival Small Group Sessions starting the first week of October. Bryan Malone and I are seeking 20 group leaders and next weekend you will choose one of the 20 groups. They will be available at various days of the week, times, and locations. See graphic below for more details...

SMALL GROUP SESSIONS

THE TRUTH OF THE EUCHARIST EXPLAINED

- Participate in weekly video and group sessions
- Begins the first week of October
- Only 7 weeks. Take the week of Deer Hunting off
- Each session 1½ to 2 hours
- Sign up sheets at the entrances starting September 9th-10th
- You get to choose!
- Sign up for the group that best fits your schedule
- Questions? Contact Deacon Gary 218-841-8267 or Bryan Malone 218-686-9518

Take some time in silence to understand if the Holy Spirit is nudging you to lead a small group... if so, please contact Bryan or myself to get the ball rolling. The video sessions are simple to lead with little preparation. We will provide weekly handouts and ongoing support throughout the sessions.

In the New Testament reading of Romans 12, we hear these words, "be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God." By leading a small group, you are a Missionary Disciple that brings forth the words of this scripture, in cooperation with the Holy Spirit, to the small group. I am excited for this 7 session small group journey as I meet people that are also interested to know Jesus in the Eucharist. This may allow us to better discern God's will through greater understanding of His great love for us. Thank you for considering this invite to lead a small group. The famous question from a movie in the 1980's "Who you gonna call?"

Peace, Deacon Gary

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" ~Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

Please join us for our next Order of Christian Initiation of Adults gathering, OCIA and Beyond (formerly RCIA and Beyond). Class is held in the Holy Family Room on the 1st & 3rd Thursday of the month at 6:45pm. Our next class is Thursday, September 7. The topic will be, "How to live and love your Catholic faith". All are welcome to join us!
