The Prayer Over the Offerings

"I appeal to you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship" (Romans 12:1). To conclude the Preparation of the Gifts, the priest appeals to the assembly: "Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours be acceptable to God, the almighty Father." Called to pray, the people stand and make their response, holding themselves in readiness for the Mystery about to unfold. The Mass engages not the priest alone, nor the people apart from the priest, but the people offering with the priest and through his ministry. "The celebration of the Eucharist is an action of the whole Church, and in it each one should carry out solely but completely that which pertains to him or her, in virtue of the rank of each within the People of God" (GIRM, art. 5). The Prayer Over the Offerings follows. It asks God to receive the offerings set before him and to give us, in exchange, the surpassing gift of himself. The faithful, uniting themselves to this prayer, make it their own by sealing it with the acclamation, Amen.

A Letter from father Chuck

Feast of Christ the King Greetings,

Something to ponder, the feast we celebrate is called Feast of Christ the King of the Universe... On this last Sunday of the Church year, hopefully we have grown in faith and have allowed God to deepen our Faith through the experience of His presence among us.

The Advent "little blue book" is available. Next Sunday is the beginning of the new church year and our Advent season. The book provides a great 5 or 6 minutes of morning or evening prayer. It is a great way to start a conversation with Christ the King. Jesus loves you and wants to visit with you frequently.

Thanksgiving Day just passed us by, and it is the traditional beginning to the shopping, baking, gift giving, party season starts. Families may experience stress and concern over how much and when to spend. Take time for some quiet and peace in your home. Set aside time for hot chocolate and some of those cookies. It is important for parents to be on the same page especially during a high stress season. Take time to have a hot drink after the kids go to bed. Make sure you set aside a certain time, the TV is off and conversation on... Sometimes it is, "dying to self" and what you want to do, but be present to the other person, it will pay dividends in the temperament around the house.

I am thankful for the rituals of the Catholic Church. They enrich us and allow us to grow in faith as a community. I am thankful for the peace and calm that comes over a person who receives the sacrament of the anointing of the sick. Just ask anyone who has been anointed how they feel afterwards. I am thankful for the large number of people who take time to attend daily mass. It is a testament to me of the belief in the true presence of Jesus and how much our faith calls us to have Him a part of our lives. I am thankful for the number of parents who bring their children forward for baptism; their desire to pass on the faith is commendable. I am thankful for the people who participate in RCIA/OCIA. Lifelong learning is a challenge and is also rewarding to those who venture forth.

Do you know of someone who is homebound and does not receive the Eucharist on a regular basis? Please let us know in the office. We have volunteers who have stepped forward and went through the training to bring Jesus. They are eager to be sent out into the world. I would like to visit those homebound at least once every 2 months with the Eucharistic Ministers assisting other times. All we need is their names so we can reach out.

I am thankful for the many people who have opened their lives to me as your priest. You have allowed me in and shown me the great capacity that God has for love. I am thankful I am in this place, at this time, and among you God's chosen people. Jesus loves you and so do I.....

This is an old story, someone sent it this week... Plane Crash in North Dakota

The plane crash referred to happened only yesterday or the day before on the south side of Hazen, North Dakota. It was labeled as "North Dakota's Worst Air Disaster," so this email is to inform of some basic facts. I'll quote the short article I read: "North Dakota's worst air disaster occurred today when a Cessna 152, a small 2-seater plane, crashed into a Norwegian Lutheran Church cemetery here early this morning. "Ole and Sven, working as a search and rescue team, have recovered 826 bodies so far and expect the number to climb as digging continues into the evening."

Blessings Fr. Chuck

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – Matthew 25:40
Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

Six Stone Jars Retreat

Seven times in the Gospel of St. John, Jesus used the term "I am" to describe his profound and loving relationship with mankind. During this weekend we will take time to explore the Gospel of St. John and in particular the seven "I am" statement contained therein.

- I am the bread of life
- I am the light of the world
- I am the door
- I am the good shepherd
- I am the resurrection and the life
- I am the way, the truth, and the life
- I am the true vine

What do they mean to us? How can they help us in our married life?

Come and see!
