The Holy Father's Prayer Intention

For the gift of Diversity in the Church. We pray that the Holy Spirit may help us to recognize the gift of different charisms within the Christian community and to discover the richness of different traditions and rituals in the Catholic Church.

How much time will you spend with your spouse today? Some studies say that the average couple spends only 20 minutes a day together. If you find yourself wanting to spend more time with your significant other or if you are looking for guidance at any point in your relationship, from dating to death. Please go to www.foryourmarriage.org. This website is filled with wonderful information on parenting, dating, engagement, and married life.

Second Collection Notice!

This weekend, January 20th and 21st, we will be holding a second collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. Remember those who have asked for our prayers.

Henry Heffern, Jeff McBride. When adding someone to the prayer list please ask for their permission to do so, and then contact the parish office. Names are left on the prayer list for four weeks.

Intercession

"Therefore, Lord, remember at this time all for whom we make this offering to you" (Eucharistic Prayer III). No one is forgotten in the Mass: not the saints in heaven, nor our fellow pilgrims on earth, nor those who have gone before us in death. In the Eucharistic Prayer we pray for our Pope and Bishop by name. We pray too for "the clergy, those who make the offering, those gathered here, your entire people, and all who seek you with a sincere heart" (Eucharistic Prayer IV). We pray for "those who have died in the peace of your Christ and all the dead whose faith only you have known" (Eucharistic Prayer IV). In every Mass we rejoice to name "Mary, the most blessed Virgin Mother of God." We remember the Apostles, the Martyrs, and all the saints. Our Eucharistic intercession is immense and all-embracing. Like Jacob's ladder it stretches from earth to heaven. "And behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending upon it" (Genesis 28:12). Catholics request the celebration of Masses for the departed, for the needs of the living, and for special intentions. There is no greater comfort in times of sorrow, no surer help in time of need, no higher joy in times of blessing than the Mass.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Letter from Father Chuck

Greetings on the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time,

Jesus calls His disciples, in a small group or as individuals. Jesus still calls disciples today, we hear the Word of God through Scripture, then it is our choice: mediate on it or ignore it. Is the Word we hear Jesus asking us to follow him or to do something. I heard a scripture passage on a Sunday, and had it answer a question for me I was pondering. "You cannot serve both God and mammon" was the phrase that took me away from an opportunity to enter into a life of politics. I was 23 at the time. I remained active and did the caucus program along with door knocking but it just was not for my campaign. I have reflected on this moment a few times and still feel a sense of relief that I made the right choice. I am asking you to reflect on how Jesus has called you and how have you responded. There is a great daily meditation book, "Jesus Calling" ...

Lenten opportunities: The small groups that met and shared the video series about Jesus in the Eucharist, all report they would like to do something again for the Lenten season. Deacon Gary, Bryan Malone, and I are working on setting up a different series that can be used by small groups. Watch for the opportunity to sign up to join a small group, maybe a different time or with all new faces. If you missed the last time you will want to join this time...

Scams: Barely into January and 3 brushes with scam artists already. A clever email arrived using a staff member's name, addressed to another staff member asking to move her payroll deposit to a different bank account. They even provided the new routing number.

Two parishioners came to Mass on Sunday telling me they had been sent information via text that I need help getting gift cards. They were asked to purchase the card and send the information to the text number so I could give it to someone... I would never ask anyone to do that.... Be careful...

I had set my parish credit card to notify me when the card was used and not present. There were 4 attempts in 4 minutes with a decreasing value on the items to be purchased online. I called the card company and we decided to cancel the card to stop the attempts. Be alert and safe out there, someone will try and take advantage.

Here are a couple stories that can bring a smile.

There was a story about a man named Charlie who was quite a selfish and inconsiderate husband. Even though both he and his wife worked, he never helped at home with the cleaning, cooking or with the children. He expected supper on the table promptly every evening and watched television all evening long while his wife kept the entire home in order. One day while Charlie was in the doctor's waiting room, he read an article in a magazine that said - If women were not so tired in the evening, they would be more romantic with their husbands. Well, the next day when Charlie's wife got home, she had quite a surprise. She found supper cooked and warming on the stove. She found the dining table set with the good China, napkins and candles. Charlie had also done 2 sets of laundry and a third load was in the dryer. The house was also swept, and the carpets vacuumed. The following morning Charlie's wife was telling her friends at work about the article and everything that Charlie did. She continued "After dinner Charlie did all the dishes, helped the children with their homework and even gave them a bath and put them to bed. I had a wonderful evening!" Her friends were impressed but wanted to know about the romantic part of the evening after the kids were in bed. "Oh" she said, "That part didn't work out very well.... Charlie was too tired!"

A one-dollar coin met a twenty-dollar bill and said, "Hey, where have you been? I haven't seen you around here much." The twenty answered, "I've been hanging out at the casinos, went on a cruise and did the rounds of the ship, back to the United States for a while, went to a couple of baseball games, to the mall, that kind of stuff. How about you?" The one-dollar coin said, "You know, same old stuff - church, church, church."

Blessings on your Day! Fr Chuck

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Marian Route FROM THE NORTH

10th National Eucharistic Congress is exactly 6 months away!

Come make history with us in Indianapolis at the 10th National Eucharistic Congress, where we will gather at the feet of Jesus for the first time in nearly a century, boldly anticipating a new Pentecost. Your life—and our Church—will never be the same.

God has something in store for YOU, and he invites you to receive it at the historic 10th National

A Journey TO Jesus

A pilgrimage is “the simultaneous movement of the feet and the soul”—a journey made both externally and internally. The pilgrim travels to a location of spiritual significance, stepping outside of themselves in order to encounter God in places where he has revealed himself. This action mirrors the interior journey of the pilgrim, who uses this experience to draw closer to Our Lord and seek him more intentionally.

The value of a pilgrimage is not in the distance traveled but in the disposition of our own hearts and the zeal with which we seek God. Many saints have had life-changing experiences while on pilgrimage, and the practice has been a part of Christianity from the beginning.

Departing from the headwaters of the Mississippi, the northern arm of the Pilgrimage will descend through the midwestern United States, pass through Wisconsin and Illinois, and meet up with the other three Pilgrimage routes in Indianapolis at the 10th National Eucharistic Congress.

This route may be the shortest in distance, but it has no shortage of opportunities for encounter with Christ! Pilgrims will attend

DAILY SCHEDULE

Wednesday, July 17, 2024 – “From the Four Corners”

As the Congress begins, the four branches of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will converge at the venue in a powerful symbol of unity. Then—gathered as one Church—we will present our wounded and imperfect hearts to the triune God who loves us. Just as he did on the road to Emmaus, Our Lord will listen to our worries and reveal himself once more in the breaking of the bread.

Thursday, July 18, 2024 – “The Greatest Love Story

During this first full day of the Congress, participants will receive a clear kerygmatic proclamation that invites them into intimate relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Together, we will have the opportunity to respond to this call in the celebration of the Eucharist. Then we will uncover how the story of our lives can be truly understood within the context of salvation history—the greatest love story ever told.

Friday, July 19, 2024 – “Into Gethsemane”

Today, our eyes will be opened to the effects of sin and the healing that Our Lord wants to give us. On the individual level, there will be opportunities for the healing of the whole person, including physical healing, psychological wounds, and spiritual sin. On the corporate level,

HOLY ROSARY'S INVOLVEMENT

Presently we have 20 parishioners registered to go to this unforgettable conference. Some are driving, some are flying and some will be taking the Diocesan Bus. We are uncertain to which hotel we will be staying at, but we have been told it's across the street from the stadium. Many people have expressed interest in joining us for the pilgrimage in Bemidji. Please read the page included in
