

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held every Tuesday from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm in the church. All are welcome at any time to pray and be with Jesus. Sunday Holy Hour: Deacon Gary and Fr. Chuck lead a Holy Hour on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month at 3:00 pm. This is an opportunity to spend time with Jesus. Adoration also takes place during this time. You may stop in for any length of time that works for you. The hour closes with Benediction. Bring a friend and spend time with your friend Jesus!

Did you know...

Child abuse can occur in every culture and every socio-economic demographic. Peer reviewed research, especially that of the past 30 years, repeatedly shows this to be true. This same research indicates that the vast majority of child abuse occurs at the hands of someone known to the victim. Those who seek to do harm to children will pursue opportunities that provide access to children and may even ingratiate themselves into the home. You can protect children by respecting the safe environment protocols established at youth serving organizations. More importantly, you can implement many of these protocols in your home and be ever observant and vigilant in all public and private settings.

A Letter from Father Chuck Huck

Third Sunday of Easter Greetings,

Monday through Thursday of this week Bishop Cozzens and the Priests of the Diocese of Crookston will be gathered in Bemidji. Pray for us as we grow in knowledge and fellowship.

This year will be a busy marriage season, I am reviewing all of the marriage preparation files. Checking to see that the FOCCUS is completed, Engaged Encounter is set, NFP is completed, the liturgy is prepared, and all of the formal paperwork is ready. It is a joy to visit couples who are in love and ready to proclaim that love publicly.

When a couple comes to the Church for marriage, they consent to three important conditions. They are being open to: (1) the procreation and education of children, (2) to a permanent relationship and (3) to being faithful. All marriages are presumed valid and all three of these points must be valid for the marriage to be considered sacramental by the Church.

It is unfortunate that not all marriages are made in heaven. Not all marriages are peaceful. Divorce does happen and the Church recognizes the hurt and suffering that comes with a divorce. It can affect all members of the family in differing ways. Sometimes one of the parties wishes to remarry and seeks what is known as an annulment or formally, a Statement of Nullity.

A Statement of Nullity is granted if one or more of the essential elements of marriage are absent from the beginning of the marriage. Many questions are asked, testimony is sought to help the Tribunal (the Church official that hears the case) make a determination as to the Sacramentality of the marriage. They start with basic questions: Did you intend to be faithful? Did you intend to offer your life for the good of your spouse? Did you intend to be open to children? Did you intend that your relationship be permanent? Were you mature enough to understand what you were agreeing to, and not be pressured into the marriage? Was there a pregnancy, family pressure or a military obligation that compromised your ability to make the decision? Consent must be considered carefully and given freely in a valid marriage. Did you believe divorce would be an acceptable alternative to being in an unhappy relationship?

A question frequently asked of the church is: Does getting an annulment mean I was never married? The answer is simple: Civilly, you were married. You went through a ceremony, pledged yourselves to each other, perhaps had children and built a home and a life together. Now you are divorced and no longer civilly married. It is important to note that your children are legitimate. The Catholic Church believes each child to be a gift from God; therefore, the law of the Catholic Church states that children born of a marriage that is later declared invalid are legitimate. This decision of invalidity is not a moral judgment on the lives of the parties involved and it does not attribute blame to either party.

In our Diocese the cost of an Annulment is covered entirely by the Diocese, funded through the Diocesan Annual Appeal. (DAA). The Diocese wants all participants in the process to be able to fully live out their lives as practicing Catholics. I can discuss the question of the reception of the Holy Eucharist as a divorced person, do not rely on street information...

I invite you not to stay away from the Church and the Sacraments; we can discuss any situation in which you may find yourself involved. Maybe it is for you, maybe it is for a friend, I am open to visiting with anyone who has questions or would like to explore the possibility of straightening out their marital status to come and speak about it. I can answer your questions. When you are ready, I will help you through the process. When the process is completed, you will find a sense of peace that Christ can bring to a rough time in your life.

Please reflect on this prayer and what it means to our journey in life.

God, take our hands as we journey together. Help us to be careful listeners, respecting each person's story and alert to your presence in all of us. God, open our hearts as we journey together. Enlighten us all as we search for your presence in our lives. Help us to understand how each of our stories is part of your divine story. God, show us the way as we journey together. Grace us, O Lord, with honesty and courage. Help us to speak our minds and hearts and to be at ease with silence when that is what we need. God, lead us in truth as we journey together. Make our gathering a time of grace. Help us to bring about the reign of God in the lives of all your people. God, be with us now as we journey together. Amen.

Blessings on your day! Fr Chuck

"Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and frightened..." - Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life
