

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention

For the cry of the Earth. We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

Priesthood Sunday - September 29, 2024

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood in the U.S. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International. Please pray for your priests and let them know how much you love and appreciate them! "Without the Sacrament of Holy Orders, we would not have the Lord. Who put him there in that tabernacle? The priest. Who welcomed your soul at the beginning of your life? The priest. Who feeds your soul and gives it strength for its journey? The priest. Who will prepare it to appear before God, bathing it one last time in the blood of Jesus Christ? The priest, always the priest. And if this soul should happen to die (as a result of sin), who will raise it up; who will restore its calm and peace? Again—the priest... After God, the priest is everything! Only in heaven will he fully realize what he is". —St. John Vianney (Patron saint of priests)

A Letter from Father Nate Brunn

Greetings,

The role of a good role model in our lives is so important! When you were young, who did you look up to? Who did you want to model your life after? For a lot of children, they want to model their lives after their parents, their grandparents, their aunts, their uncles... As they grow up, the role model usually changes to a famous sports star, an actor or actress, a musician, a teacher, etc. Then ultimately the role model becomes a person with whom they associate great qualities, authenticity, groundedness, determination, etc.

Whether we want to admit it or not, we are looking up to someone, and someone is looking up to us. Two questions: who or what are you looking up to, and when someone looks up to you, what are they seeing? Those people in our lives that we look up to, our role models, have an impact on us—in our thoughts, our actions, and our words. Often, we try to imitate those we look up to; that is why it is important that we choose our role models well!

When someone looks up to you, what are they seeing? This is especially important for parents and grandparents; the little ones are always watching! A great joy for me as a priest is being able to distribute the Eucharist. I love being able to give Jesus' body to the faithful. I have seen parents who are busy with their children during Mass: trying to redirect their attention, stepping out while their child needs a moment to "pull it together," following along with the words in the music or the prayers, and passing their child to the nearest grandparent so they can have just a moment by themselves. And then the faithful come forward to receive the Eucharist. Our young people's eyes are GLUED to what is happening! As I hold the Eucharist in front of the parent and say, "Body of Christ," the parent responds with an "Amen." Children are fixated on what is happening!

This is an incredible witness to being a role model. Our young people are watching how important it is for their parents to receive the Eucharist. This is an important moment in the Mass, and it is the most important moment of the week! Parents don't be afraid to talk to your children about how important the Eucharist and going to Mass are in your life! Don't worry about saying the "right" words or saying the "wrong" thing but speak about a love for Jesus and the Eucharist. Our young people are looking for a good role model, one who is authentic, genuine, trustworthy, and faithful. Be a witness of Christ!

Priesthood Sunday is Sept. 29 (this Sunday). I remember Fr. Denny Dempsey from the Archdiocese of Minneapolis/St. Paul from when I was a child. He was our associate pastor when I was growing up. I do not remember much of the words he spoke, but I do remember his joy, his smile, and his humor. Even though I was young when I knew him, I look back and say that he is a man who loved Jesus and loved life! I am grateful for the role models that I have had in my life, especially for some of the priests who have had such an impact on my life and my call to the priesthood. Please continue to pray for good, healthy, happy, and holy priests, especially here in the Diocese of Crookston.

Thank you!! It takes a lot of people to make a parish festival work! Holy Rosary has had several people involved in getting our parish festival pulled together! Thank you for your generosity of time, talent, and treasure; know that we are truly grateful for all that you do!

Continuing Education. I will be out of town starting Oct. 6th and returning Oct. 12th for a series of workshops in Buffalo, MN. This is a chance for me to gather with other priests from other dioceses as we seek to improve and grow in our ministries. I will have the weekend Masses as normal, but we will not be having weekday Masses that week.

Fr. Nate Brunn.

"Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward." Mark 9:41

We are made in God's image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generously become easier. Why? Because that's the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.
