A Message From Fr. Nate

Strengthened the spirits of the disciples. In our 1st reading this weekend, Paul and Barnabas are proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ! They also recognize that as people are living the Gospel, that it is hard work! This is the opportunity for Paul and Barnabas to build one another up.

Sports can usually provide a lot of strong images for a spiritual life. Team sports have always fascinated me: watching how they work together, supporting their teammate(s), artistry of plays and techniques, comradery with the teammates, etc. At the same time, it also becomes evident when the team is not playing well together: disorganized, pointing fingers, frustrations and anger, bad fouls or penalties, the general apathetic disposition, etc. It is important to have a few players that are good and talented, but it is important to put together a cohesive team that is moving forward.

Paul and Barnabas are using this opportunity to build up the community who have experienced some challenges. Some of the disciples have experienced setbacks by way of rejections, persecutions, disappointments, fears, and anxieties. Their encouragement is to not give up, to persevere in faith and the challenges that come along with that.

Word of Encouragement. It is one thing to be able to live our Catholic faith here at church: we come on Sunday, sometimes during the week, say my prayers in the comfort of the home, and maybe you’re a part of a Bible study. All are good. What about the times that you live your faith outside of these moments? The times when you engage in a difficult conversation about the Catholic Church; the times when you invite someone who is experiencing some difficulties in life to pray with you; the times when we avoid certain people or situations because we know that they want to challenge our Catholic faith. We are in this life together. Who could use a word of encouragement in our community? What can YOU do to build the community? It is difficult to live our faith outside of the comfort zone, look for people that you can encourage, that you can build up, so that together we can build the Kingdom that God is inviting us to build.

Please Remember Those Who Have Asked For Our Prayers

Jean LeDoux, Marilyn Windschitl, Dean Hendrickson, Lynda Hultin, Katherine Rehorst, and Rondi Ulmer

When adding someone to the prayer list, please ask for their permission to do so and then contact the parish office. Names are left on the prayer list for four weeks.

The Holy Father’s Prayer Intention for May

For working conditions

Let us pray that through work, each person might find fulfillment, families might be sustained in dignity, and that society might be humanized.

“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” (JOHN 13:34)

 “As I have loved you,” this is the hard part – Jesus’s love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn’t matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to “love my neighbor” when they may be someone you don’t like, someone you don’t know, or someone that doesn’t look like you.
