Did You Know?

St. Vitus’s feast day is June 15th. In Rome, Vitus freed the son of Emperor Diocletian from an evil spirit. When Vitus would not sacrifice to the pagan gods in celebration, his cure was attributed to sorcery. He was thrown to the lions; the lions would not touch him, so they were thrown into boiling oil. At the moment of their deaths, an immense storm destroyed several pagan temples in the region, which led to the tradition of protection against stormy weather.

His peculiar patronage though is invoked for epilepsy, chorea (St. Vitus' dance), and all other diseases connected with nervous shaking and muscular spasms. In many places Christians were encouraged to dance continuously "in honor of Saint Vitus" until they dropped from sheer exhaustion, which often cured them.

LITURGICAL PRAYER: Grant to Thy Church, we pray, O Lord, through the intercession of Thy holy Martyrs Vitus, Modestus and Crescentia, not to be proud-minded, but to grow in humility which is so pleasing before Thee; shunning the things that are evil, may she with eager love practice whatever is right.

A Message From Deacon Gary

The Holy Trinity

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is the core, the foundation, the base of our Catholic faith. Every time we make the sign of the cross, we are invoking the Trinity over, around, and through ourselves. This is the most powerful, humble, simple, and identifying way that we mark ourselves to the One that we are baptized and confirmed in.

When speaking or writing about the Holy Trinity, often we dismiss it by saying, “it’s a mystery!” or “I have no idea how to explain it”. It is Something that we take for granted as a difficult teaching which often leads us to not exploring or diving into the Trinity. There’s a famous story about St. Augustine when he was trying to figure out the Trinity. He was walking on the beach and thinking about the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. There was a young boy that dug a hole in the sand and was bringing buckets of water from the ocean to fill it up. St. Augustine asked the boy what he was doing, and the young boy responded that he was filling the hole with the whole ocean. St. Augustine responded to the boy by saying, “that is impossible”, and the boy shrugged his shoulders and continued. St. Augustine came to the realization that he was trying to do the impossible: take the infinite (Trinity) and pour it into his finite mind. With that, he realized he would never be able to fully comprehend the Trinity, but he was determined to keep filling his finite mind with the infinite Trinity.

The Holy Trinity is more than a mystery. God continues to reveal Himself to us as we participate in the divine life. One way that we participate in the Trinity is at Mass. The Mass is the worship where we enter God’s divine life. Rather than seeing God from afar, we enter into the life of God. Our participation in the Mass is our participation in the Trinity through Wisdom, Eucharist, and being sent by the Spirit to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. When we participate in the Mass, we experience the divine life. This is how we begin to explain the Trinity; how our finite minds can begin to comprehend the infinite of God one bucket of water at a time!

Happy Father’s Day! Blessings to all those who are celebrating dads and father-figures in your life! May you have a blessed celebration! As a diocese, we recognize the ministry of our priests who are retired. Thank them for their ministries over the years in many ways! The second collection this weekend is taken to support them. Thank you for your generosity!

--Blessings, Fr. Nate

The Holy Father’s Prayer Intention for June

That the world might grow in compassion

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...” (JOHN 16:13)

The Holy Trinity - It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don’t talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God’s response.
