Sixteenth Sunday Ordinary Time

We heard last Sunday, the Gospel reading of the Good Samaritan, when this Samaritan traveled, a stranger to the area, helped a man beaten by robbers and left for dead. The Samaritan aided the wounds, provided shelter and payment for his care. The Gospel reading ends with the words, “go and do likewise.” Meaning to be kind, helpful, supportive, and loving to the stranger and those you meet every day.

Today, the Genesis reading we hear of Abraham offering rest and nourishment to three men on a journey. The men didn’t ask for this hospitality, rather Abraham offered the hospitality. His wife Sarah made rolls, Abraham butchered a choice steer, not an average steer but a choice steer and provided curds and milk. The three men rested under the shade of a tree and ate. The encounter concludes with one of the men stating to the 90 plus year old Abraham, “I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son.” Remember Abraham and Sarah were childless and approaching 100 years old when the man announces that they will have a son by this time next year. A question to ponder... what if Abraham did not invite the men for rest and nourishment? Be ready, an encounter with sincere hospitality provides a rich experience.

The Gospel reading today is another encounter of hospitality... where Martha and Mary encounter Jesus. Both Martha and Mary have a specific role to play based on their unique gifts. For me, I am more of a Martha, preparing and serving but with an ear to the conversation. It’s understandable, with Jesus in the room, that Mary has chosen the better part. Did you hear the words from Jesus, “Mary has chosen the better part.” It doesn’t mean that Martha’s role is the wrong thing to do. Martha had a responsibility specific to her, preparing the meal, which is also important. Mary and Jesus couldn’t have had these moments without Martha’s talent to prepare the meal.

Remember Abraham’s encounter inviting the three men for rest and nourishment... it changed the lives of Sarah and Abraham. Even though Abraham thought he was improving the lives of the three men.

Be ready for the unexpected encounter, it may change your life.

Peace, Deacon Gary

Dedicated Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament are Needed!

Please consider committing to taking time for Adoration on Tuesdays!
One person at 9am, 1pm, 3pm & 5pm, two people for the noon hour, and one for 11am until September.

Please Remember Those Who Have Asked For Our Prayers

Dean Hendrickson, Lynda Hultin, Joyce Bauer, and Danae Wothe

When adding someone to the prayer list, please ask for their permission to do so and then contact the parish office. Names are left on the prayer list for four weeks.

The Holy Father’s Prayer Intentions of the Month

For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” COLOSSIANS 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.
